Dear Mr. Saunders:

Let me acknowledge the receipt of your letter of yesterday. I have carefully noted all that you say about the Mexican situation, and am glad to have your opinion in the matter. By this time, you have already seen by the newspapers the course the Administration is taking.

Sincerely yours,

Secretary to the President.

Sir,

I have received the accompanying papers with a request to present them to you, and solicit in behalf of the applicant Mr. Marin the place of an acting Purser. It is with great pleasure that I am furnished with an occasion to say that I know of no young gentleman upon whom a more perfect reliance may be placed, in regard to any duties which he may have entrusted, requiring good abilities, and tried integrity, and unassuming manners. I hope he will meet with your confidence and receive the appointment he seeks.

I have the Honour to be with the highest respect for your Obed^t servant.

Dear Brother,

I saw Mr Daggatt last week, & conversed with him on the subject of referring Clark's lawsuit. He is willing to submit it to Elizer Goodrich, Roger Griswold, & some other person we agreed on. He named Ephraim Roddus Champion. He is a good man, & provided we take one not a lawyer, I do not know but he is as well as any we can pitch upon. If you are not satisfied with these men, let me know as quickly as may be whom you would prefer, as the court sits the second Tuesday of July. Should the case be referred, would you prefer meeting at New Haven, or New London?

If Fowler & Bronson should incline to attend, how Heaven would suit them the best. It will be necessary also for you to get a time or times when you can attend, as our Courts commence their circuits in July, & both Mr Daggett & I shall be considerably engaged afterwards.

We are all as well as usual, Give my love to you all.

The trees reached me at the end of five weeks. I set them out immediately. The most of them are alive, but I am fearful are dead above the graft. The shrubs were all dead.

Dear Sir,

Having relinquished my connection with the Daily Advertiser, & removed my family to this place, I take the liberty to ask the favour of you, to remit me the balance of my account which I left with you a good while since. Being now without any steady income, I shall need all the aid I can command for the support of my family. A great proportion of my account being for money paid out, & having ^{been} much gratified at hearing of your prosperity at the north, I hope it will not put you to any serious inconvenience to advance the sum due me.

With our love to sister Pomeroy & the family, I am very sincerely yours —

My dear Sir:

I am very much indebted for your kind congratulations on my selection as leader of the minority in the Senate, and for all you are good enough to say about my speech. It was very good of you to send me an expression of approval and I assure you I greatly appreciate your doing so. I shall be glad to send you a copy of the speech, which I am having printed in pamphlet form, as you request.

Very truly yours,
