My dear Jar-a-see:

Your favor of the 20th instant came duly to hand yesterday morning, and to-day I have secured for you a passport - having paid the Government fee which you omitted to send; but it is all right - the whole thing goes for the good of "Auld lang Syne" - God bless you!

I inclose herewith two letters of introduction - addressed respectively to

to our Consuls General at London and Paris - and the aforesaid passport, which I trust may be of service to you in your foreign wanderings. -

With the very best of wishes for you in this undertaking and in all your future ventures.

I remain,

Your old-time friend.
