THE CAMPAIGN OF 1920

Facing a hopeless deadlock, Republican party leaders met in a committee room to produce the names of like-minded, handsome and energetic WENDEL B. HARRISON, a man who could lure voters. JAMES M. COX, Special Governor of Ohio, won the Democratic nomination on the 4th ballot, He and running mate Franklin D. Roosevelt promised to govern the dying President Wilson's death as a League of Nations. But the nation, fed of war and strikes, started Harding and Calvin Coolidge, who promised a return to normalcy. In a heady campaign - 34 million votes to 3 million.
