Ron began his career at the University of Southern California as an end; but in his junior year, he switched to tackle. He filled this position so well, that, as co-captain in his senior year, he was named All-Coast and to the first team of the NBC All-America. Ron was the first draft choice of the Baltimore Colts, but chose to sign with the Chargers. Fast for his size, Ron might be used as an offensive guard.

One of the real "big" men in the league, Roosevelt is loaded with explosive power. Opposing linemen face a day of bumps and bruises when they lock horns with this rugged operator. In addition to his tremendous strength, Roosevelt is extremely fast, giving him a deadly combination of speed and power. His downfield blocks are bone rattling and the tough pro lineplay is right up his alley. In college he was a championship shot puter.

HEIGHT: 6:01 • WEIGHT: 255 • BORN: Nov. 24, 1931
HOME: Lemoyne, Pa. • COLLEGE: Maryland • YEARS PRO: 3

In college, Stan was voted the 1953 Lineman of the Year. His astounding ability to ruin enemy plays and figure out opposing strategy also won him All-American honors. He came to the Bears in '54 and immediately lived up to his fine reputation. Starting as offensive guard, Stan hammered out holes in enemy lines and piled up linemen with thunderous blocks. Whether he plays offense or defense, Stan Jones is one of the top linemen in the N.F.L.

CHICAGO BEARS

HEIGHT: 6'3" • WEIGHT: 200 • AGE: 29

HOMETOWN: Florence, Alabama

COLLEGE: Florence Teachers

Hill is the classic example that success in pro ball doesn't require a college reputation. He was spurned by big schools like Alabama, drafted 15th as a sleeper in 1954, but by 1956 had won the Jim Thorpe Trophy as the outstanding player in the game. He has been compared with the great Don Hutson as a man impossible to cover on passes. Injuries have occasionally limited his effectiveness. Hill has also branched out as a sports radio announcer in Memphis, Tenn.

EARL MORRALL

QUARTERBACK

DETROIT LIONS

HEIGHT: 6'2" • WEIGHT: 200 • AGE: 27

HOMETOWN: Muskegon, Mich.

COLLEGE: Michigan State

Last year vindicated Earl Morrall as a pro quarterback. Since breaking into the league in '56, he's been on the verge of making good, never quite breaking through. The Forty Niners played him behind Tittle, the Steelers broke him in as a regular but then traded him for Bobby Layne, and Detroit had him in Tobin Rote's shadow. Slated finally for a starting spot, he was pushed out by Jim Ninowski, but recovered brilliantly late in the season to lead the Lions to second place.

GAIL COGDILL

END

DETROIT LIONS

HEIGHT: 6'2" • WEIGHT: 190 • AGE: 24

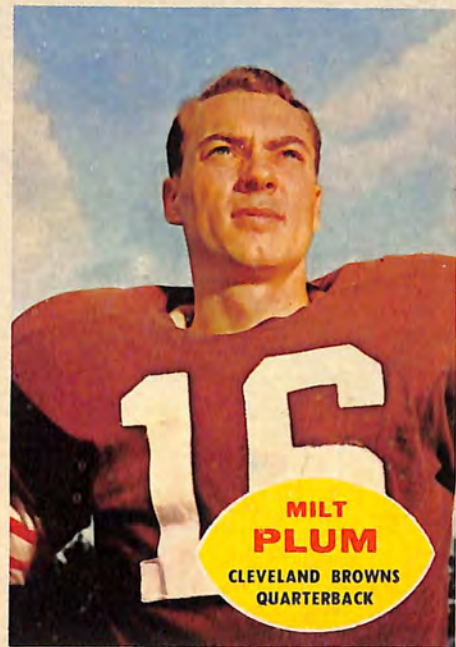

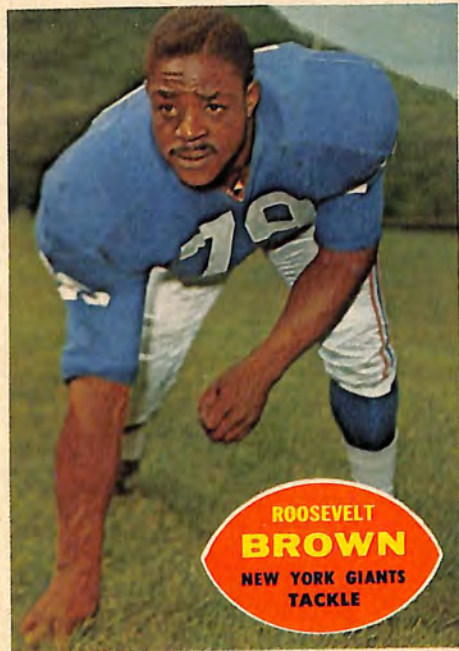

HOMETOWN: Spokane, Wash.

COLLEGE: Washington State

One of the more pleasant Detroit surprises, Gail was the NFL's rookie of the year and a Pro Bowler. He gained some All-American laurels at Washington State, was a sixth round draft choice, and starred in the East-West and Senior Bowl games. He was right on the beam as the seventh leading pass receiver in the league with 43 receptions. Great hands, speed and size are all in his corner.

HEIGHT: 6:03

WEIGHT: 245

AGE: 28

COLLEGE: MORGAN STATE

YEARS PRO: 8

A consistent All Pro selection, Rosey pries open holes in enemy defenses with ease. When he spots a Giant back in the open, he forms a one-man convoy and tosses downfield blocks that seem like H-bomb explosions.
