

ZACHARY TAYLOR

"Old Rough and Ready"

Twelfth President

Born Nov. 24, 1784, in Orange County, Virginia, of English ancestry. Entered the army as a youth and remained a soldier. With inferior numbers, "Old Rough and Ready" won battle after battle on the banks of the Rio Grande against the Mexicans, culminating at Monterey and with the overthrow of Santa Ana, at Buena Vista. A grateful nation rang with his praises. He died July 9, 1850.

This is one of a series of 31 pictures of our Presidents. Save the 31 pictures, return to United States Caramel Company, East Boston, Mass., and receive a one pound dollar box of ASSORTED CHOCOLATES FREE. Your pictures will be returned with the chocolates.

JAMES KNOX POLK

A North Carolina Boy

Eleventh President

Born Nov. 2, 1795, in Mecklenburg County, North Carolina, Scotch-Irish descent. Educated at the University of North Carolina, a lawyer. During his term of office the California gold rush began, Howe invented the sewing machine. It was an age of progress. He died June 15, 1849, still a comparatively young man.

This is one of a series of 31 pictures of our Presidents. Save the 31 pictures, return to United States Caramel Company, East Boston, Mass., and receive a one pound dollar box of ASSORTED CHOCOLATES FREE. Your pictures will be returned with the chocolates.

FRANKLIN PIERCE

"The New Hampshire Man"

Fourteenth President

Born Nov. 23, 1804, at Hillsborough, New Hampshire. English ancestry. Educated at Bowdoin College as lawyer. Hawthorne and Longfellow were his schoolmates. He was a brigadier-general in the Mexican War and at Contreras had his horse shot from under him, was badly injured but refused to leave the field. During his term our first treaty was made with Japan. He died Oct. 8, 1869.

This is one of a series of 31 pictures of our Presidents. Save the 31 pictures, return to United States Caramel Company, East Boston, Mass., and receive a one pound dollar box of ASSORTED CHOCOLATES FREE. Your pictures will be returned with the chocolates.

MILLARD FILLMORE

"The Second-Hand President"

Thirteenth President

Born Jan. 7, 1800, on a farm in Cayuga County, New York. English ancestry. His education was limited. He was a tailor's apprentice but later studied law. He advanced largely by his own efforts. When he got a little money he bought a small English dictionary which he studied while at work and there was a small library in the village whose books he eagerly read. In that way he got to know a great deal about history and other things. He died March 8, 1850.

This is one of a series of 31 pictures of our Presidents. Save the 31 pictures, return to United States Caramel Company, East Boston, Mass., and receive a one pound dollar box of ASSORTED CHOCOLATES FREE. Your pictures will be returned with the chocolates.

JOHN TYLER

The Surprise President

Tenth President

Born March 29, 1790, at Greenway, Virginia, of English descent. Educated at William and Mary College, a lawyer. Notable events of his time were the annexation of the Texas Republic to the United States and the construction of the first telegraph system, by S. F. B. Morse. Died Jan. 17, 1861, at Richmond, Virginia.

This is one of a series of 31 pictures of our Presidents. Save the 31 pictures, return to United States Caramel Company, East Boston, Mass., and receive a one pound dollar box of ASSORTED CHOCOLATES FREE. Your pictures will be returned with the chocolates.

WILLIAM HENRY HARRISON

The Hero of Tippecanoe

Ninth President

Born Feb. 9, 1773, at Berkeley, Virginia, English ancestry. Graduated at Hampden-Sidney College. Studied medicine but stopped to go west to fight the Indians. He was a soldier and farmer. When the Indian Chief Tecumseh took the warpath, backed by the British, Harrison conquered him at Tippecanoe in 1811. He died only one short month after he went into office, April 4, 1841.

This is one of a series of 31 pictures of our Presidents. Save the 31 pictures, return to United States Caramel Company, East Boston, Mass., and receive a one pound dollar box of ASSORTED CHOCOLATES FREE. Your pictures will be returned with the chocolates.

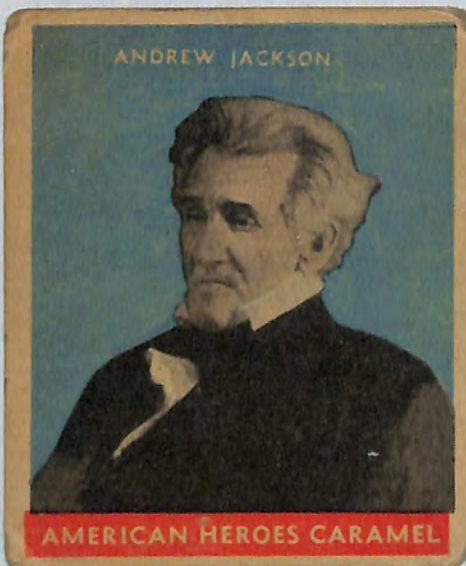

MARTIN VAN BUREN

The New York Politician

Eighth President

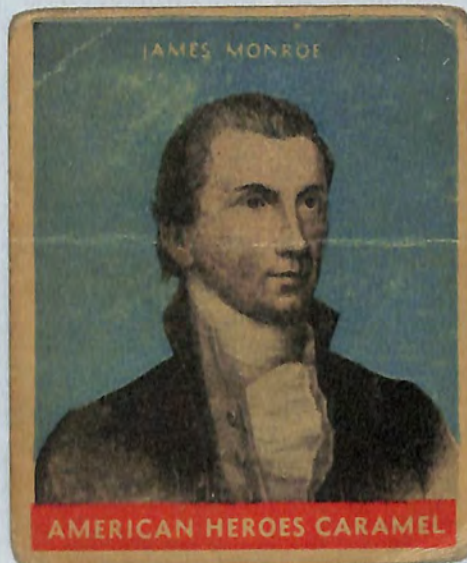

Born Dec. 5, 1782, at Kinderhook, N. Y., of Dutch ancestry. Studied law in New York City. He had a long career as Legislator, U. S. Senator, Governor, Secretary of State and Vice-President, before he came to the White House to succeed Andrew Jackson. He remained opposed to the extension of slavery. He died during the Civil War on July 24, 1862.

This is one of a series of 31 pictures of our Presidents. Save the 31 pictures, return to United States Caramel Company, East Boston, Mass., and receive a one pound dollar box of ASSORTED CHOCOLATES FREE. Your pictures will be returned with the chocolates.

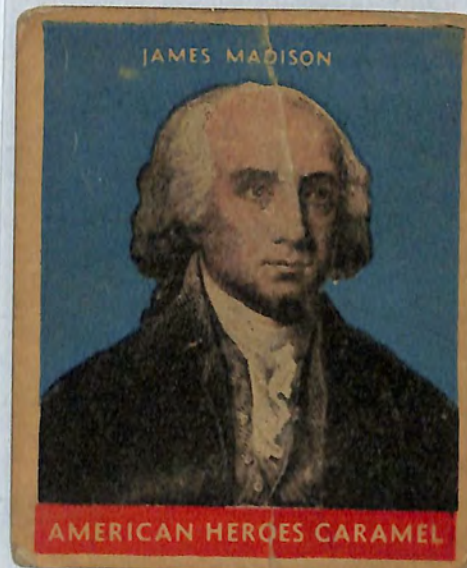

ANDREW JACKSON

AMERICAN HEROES CARAMEL

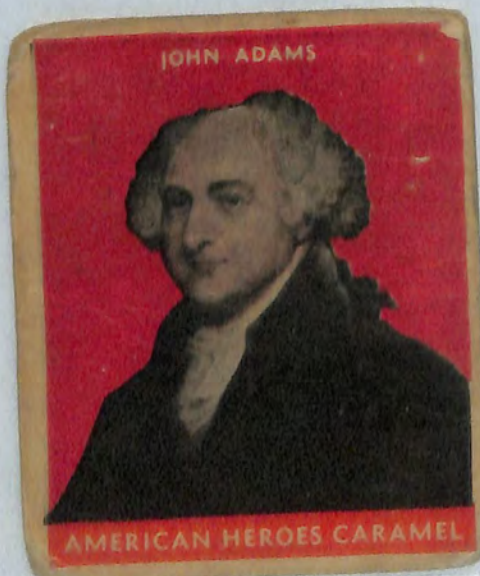

JAMES MONROE

AMERICAN HEROES CARAMEL

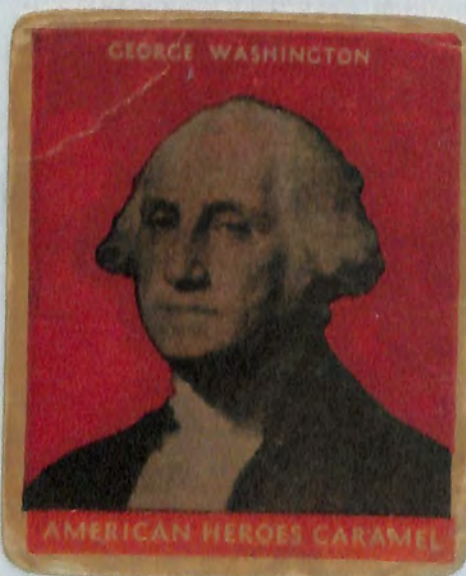

JAMES MADISON

AMERICAN HEROES CARAMEL

JOHN ADAMS

AMERICAN HEROES CARAMEL

GEORGE WASHINGTON

AMERICAN HEROES CARAMEL

FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT

AMERICAN HEROES CARAMEL

HERBERT HOOVER

AMERICAN HEROES CARAMEL

ANDREW JACKSON
"Old Hickory"

Seventh President

Born March 15, 1767, in the Waxhaw settlement on the north and south Carolina border. Both states have claimed him. Of Scotch-Irish stock. Largely self-educated, he became a lawyer. It was to General Jackson that the Indian Chief, Weathersford, surrendered after fighting against the U. S. forces in the War of 1812. He passed quietly away on June 21, 1845.

This is one of a series of 31 pictures of our Presidents. Save the 31 pictures, return to United States Caramel Company, East Boston, Mass., and receive a one pound dollar box of ASSORTED CHOCOLATES FREE. Your pictures will be returned with the chocolates.

JAMES MONROE
"America for the Americans"

Fifth President

Born April 28, 1758, in Westmoreland County, Virginia. Educated at William and Mary College—a lawyer. He was the author of "The Monroe Doctrine"—put in plain English means, "America for the Americans." He purchased Louisiana from the Great Napoleon. He died on the fourth of July, 1831, the third of our Presidents to die on Independence Day.

This is one of a series of 31 pictures of our Presidents. Save the 31 pictures, return to United States Caramel Company, East Boston, Mass., and receive a one pound dollar box of ASSORTED CHOCOLATES FREE. Your pictures will be returned with the chocolates.

JAMES MADISON
The Father of the Constitution

Fourth President

Born Mar. 16, 1751, at Port Conway, Virginia—ancestry, English. Educated at Princeton College as a lawyer. He signed the declaration of war against Great Britain on June 8, 1812. He died at the age of eighty-five on the 28th of June, 1836.

This is one of a series of 31 pictures of our Presidents. Save the 31 pictures, return to United States Caramel Company, East Boston, Mass., and receive a one pound dollar box of ASSORTED CHOCOLATES FREE. Your pictures will be returned with the chocolates.

JOHN ADAMS
The Massachusetts Patriot
Second President

Born in Braintree, Massachusetts, Oct. 30, 1735, of English ancestry. It was he that set the people to throw the tea overboard. He graduated from Harvard College in 1755 and in 1758 began the practice of law. He died on July 4, 1826, on the same day that Thomas Jefferson died.

This is one of a series of 31 pictures of our Presidents. Save the 31 pictures, return to United States Caramel Company, East Boston, Mass., and receive a one pound dollar box of ASSORTED CHOCOLATES FREE. Your pictures will be returned with the chocolates.

GEORGE WASHINGTON
The Father of His Country
First President

Born Feb. 22, 1732 at Pope's Creek (now Wakefield) Virginia, of English ancestry. When a boy he could run the fastest, climb the highest, wrestle the best, ride the swiftest, swim the longest of all the boys he played with. A surveyor, soldier and farmer. He died Dec. 14, 1799.

This is one of a series of 31 pictures of our Presidents. Save the 31 pictures, return to United States Caramel Company, East Boston, Mass., and receive a one pound dollar box of ASSORTED CHOCOLATES FREE. Your pictures will be returned with the chocolates.

FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT
Thirty-second President

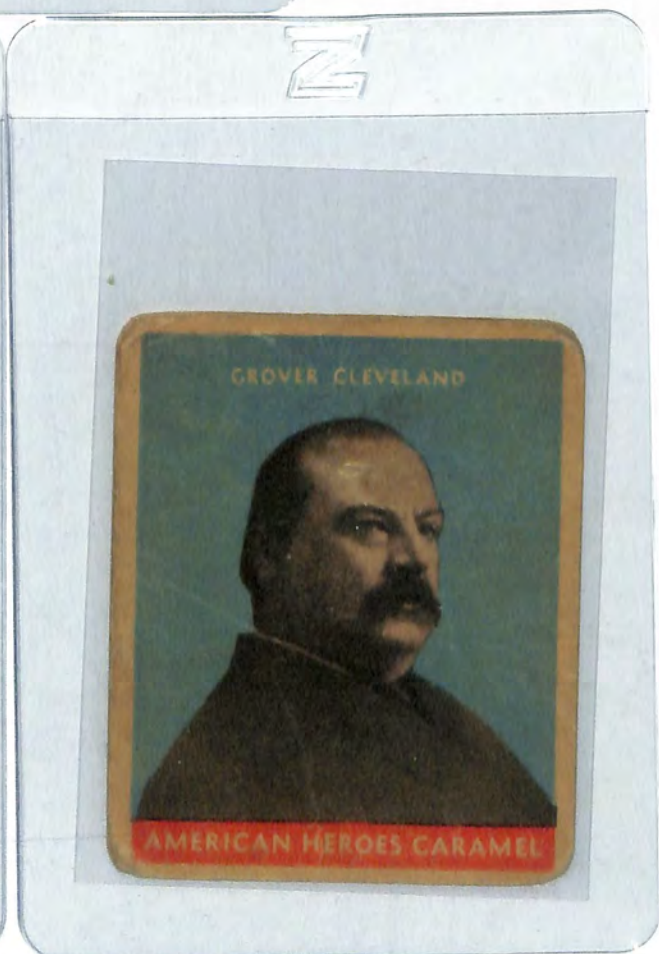

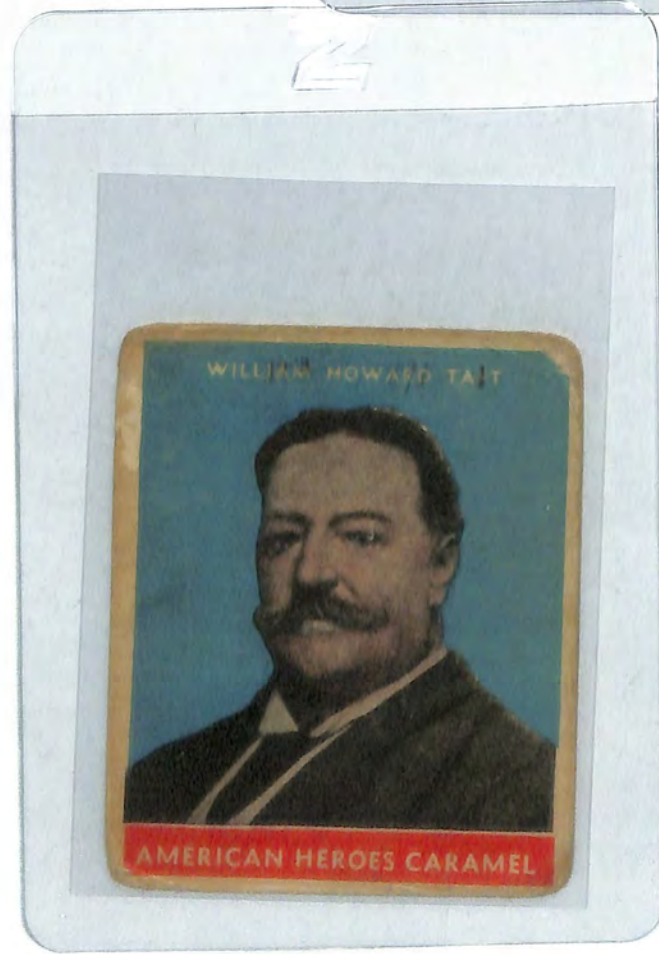

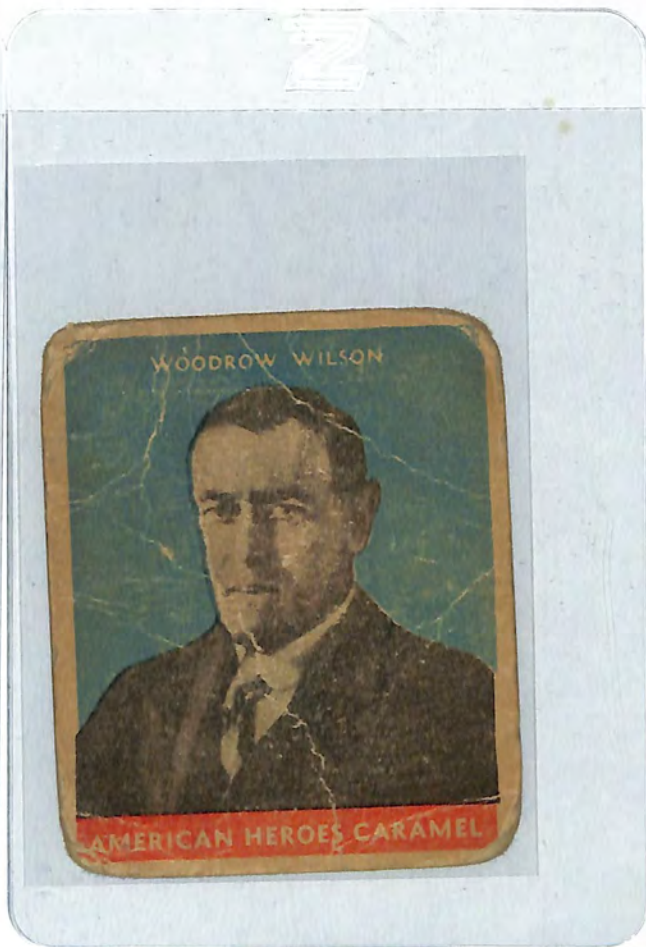

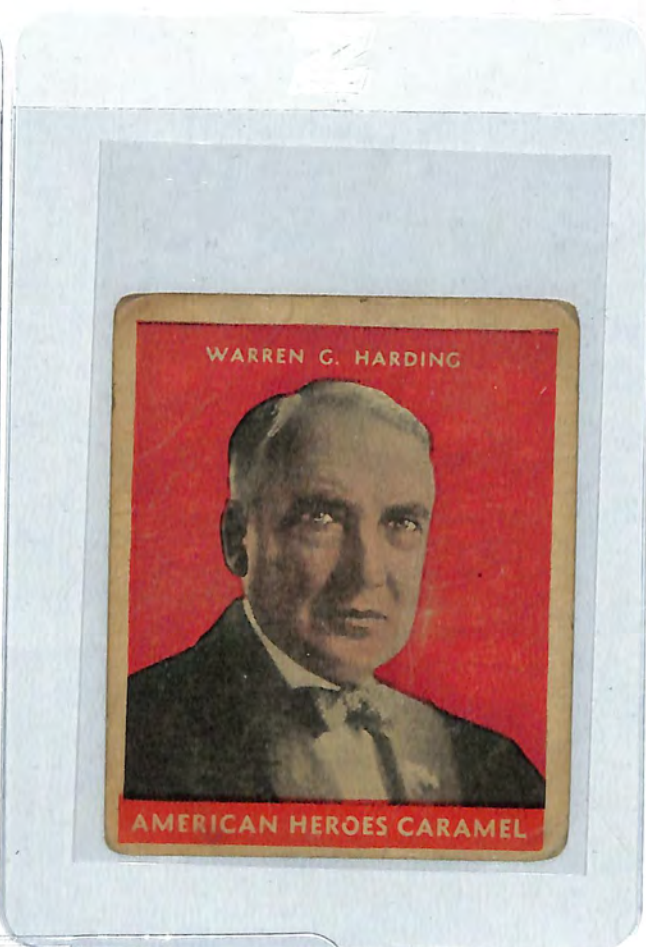

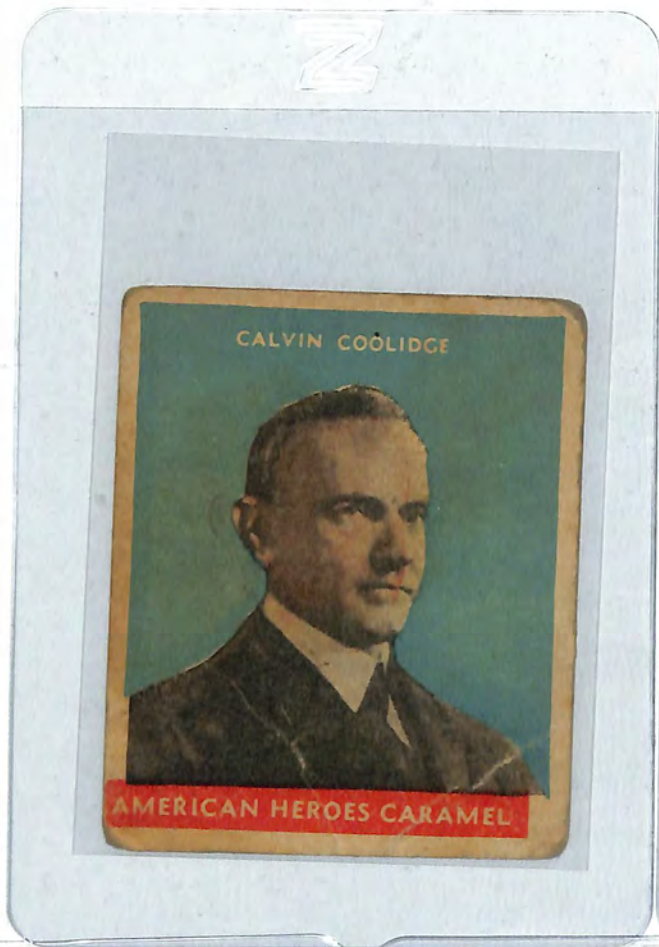

Born Jan. 30, 1882, at Hyde Park, New York. Educated at Harvard College. A lawyer. Inspector of United States Naval forces in European waters July-September, 1918, and of demobilization in Europe, January-February, 1919. Governor of the State of New York. Elected President by the largest popular and electoral vote in the history of the Country.

This is one of a series of 31 pictures of our Presidents. Save the 31 pictures, return to United States Caramel Company, East Boston, Mass., and receive a one pound dollar box of ASSORTED CHOCOLATES FREE. Your pictures will be returned with the chocolates.

HERBERT CLARK HOOVER
Thirty-first President

Born Aug. 10, 1874, at West Branch, Iowa, of Dutch and English descent. Educated at Stanford University. A mining engineer. Made United States Food Administrator when he entered the World War. The flood disaster on the Mississippi again brought him forward as a master organizer of emergency relief. Succeeded by Franklin D. Roosevelt in 1933.

This is one of a series of 31 pictures of our Presidents. Save the 31 pictures, return to United States Caramel Company, East Boston, Mass., and receive a one pound dollar box of ASSORTED CHOCOLATES FREE. Your pictures will be returned with the chocolates.

CALVIN COOLIDGE

Thirtieth President

Born July 4, 1872, at Plymouth, Vermont. Educated at Amherst College. A lawyer. He was succeeded to the Presidency on the death of Warren G. Harding. His administration was marked by a policy of rigid economy in government operations, and reduction in taxes. Declined to be nominated for a second elective term in 1928. Died January 5, 1933, very suddenly.

This is one of a series of 31 pictures of our Presidents. Save the 31 pictures, return to United States Caramel Company, East Boston, Mass., and receive a one pound dollar box of ASSORTED CHOCOLATES FREE. Your pictures will be returned with the chocolates.

WARREN G. HARDING

Twenty-ninth President

Born Nov. 2, 1865, at Corsica, Ohio, of Scotch and Dutch ancestry. Educated at Ohio Central College. A newspaper publisher. He convened the great Conference on Armaments which put a stop to rivalry among the world navies. On his way back from a visit to Alaska, he was taken ill at San Francisco and died Aug. 2, 1923.

This is one of a series of 31 pictures of our Presidents. Save the 31 pictures, return to United States Caramel Company, East Boston, Mass., and receive a one pound dollar box of ASSORTED CHOCOLATES FREE. Your pictures will be returned with the chocolates.

WOODROW WILSON

The Schoolmaster President

Twenty eighth President

Born Dec. 28, 1856, at Staunton, Virginia, of Scotch-Irish ancestry. Educated at Princeton College. A lawyer and teacher. He called on America to remain neutral when the World War broke in Europe but German attacks on our shipping forced us into the war. He was stricken with apoplexy while on a speaking tour and died Feb. 3, 1924.

This is one of a series of 31 pictures of our Presidents. Save the 31 pictures, return to United States Caramel Company, East Boston, Mass., and receive a one pound dollar box of ASSORTED CHOCOLATES FREE. Your pictures will be returned with the chocolates.

WILLIAM H. TAFT

Twenty-seventh President

Born Sept. 15, 1857, in Cincinnati, Ohio. Educated at Yale University. A lawyer. He had a long record of exceptional public service. The Department of Labor was created. New Mexico and Arizona were admitted to the Union. Died March 8, 1930.

This is one of a series of 31 pictures of our Presidents. Save the 31 pictures, return to United States Caramel Company, East Boston, Mass., and receive a one pound dollar box of ASSORTED CHOCOLATES FREE. Your pictures will be returned with the chocolates.

THEODORE ROOSEVELT

The Man of a Strenuous Life

Twenty-sixth President

Born Oct. 27, 1858, at New York City, of Dutch ancestry. Educated at Harvard College. A lawyer, rancher, author, Police Commissioner of New York, Civil Service Commissioner, Assistant Secretary of the Navy, Commander of the Rough Riders in Cuba, and Governor of New York. Outstanding act was to start building the Panama Canal. Died in his sleep after a short illness, Jan. 6, 1919.

This is one of a series of 31 pictures of our Presidents. Save the 31 pictures, return to United States Caramel Company, East Boston, Mass., and receive a one pound dollar box of ASSORTED CHOCOLATES FREE. Your pictures will be returned with the chocolates.

BENJAMIN HARRISON

The Orator President

Twenty-third President

Born Aug. 20, 1833, at North Bend, Ohio, of English ancestry. Educated at Miami University. A lawyer. Was a great soldier, rising from a lieutenant to a Major-General. The McKinley Tariff was enacted during his term, as was the Sherman Silver Purchase Act, a measure blamed by some for the panic of 1892-3. Represented the United States at The Hague Conference in 1907. Died two years later, March 13, 1901.

This is one of a series of 31 pictures of our Presidents. Save the 31 pictures, return to United States Caramel Company, East Boston, Mass., and receive a one pound dollar box of ASSORTED CHOCOLATES FREE. Your pictures will be returned with the chocolates.

GROVER CLEVELAND

The Veto President

Twenty-second and Twenty-fourth President

Born March 18, 1837, at Caldwell, New Jersey, of English descent. Educated in common schools. Became a teacher and then a lawyer. Was sheriff of Erie County, New York; Mayor of Buffalo, New York and Governor of the State of New York. On March 4, 1897, when his term ended, he bought a mansion at Princeton, New Jersey, and lived there until his death on June 24, 1908.

This is one of a series of 31 pictures of our Presidents. Save the 31 pictures, return to United States Caramel Company, East Boston, Mass., and receive a one pound dollar box of ASSORTED CHOCOLATES FREE. Your pictures will be returned with the chocolates.

Z

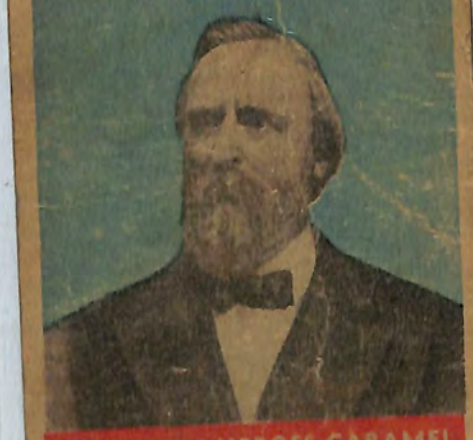

CHESTER A. ARTHUR

AMERICAN HEROES CAMEL

Z

RUTHERFORD B. HAYES

AMERICAN HEROES CAMEL

Z

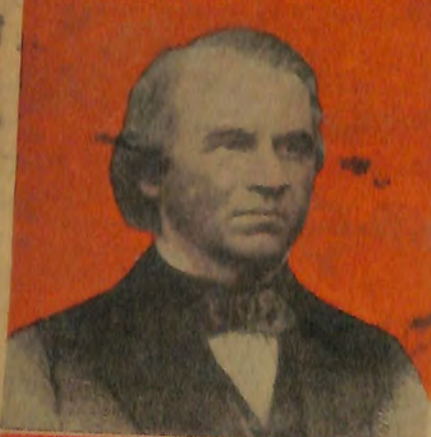

ULYSSES S. GRANT

AMERICAN HEROES CAMEL

Z

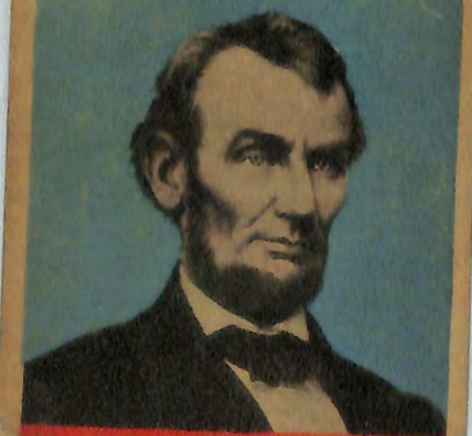

ANDREW JOHNSON

AMERICAN HEROES CAMEL

Z

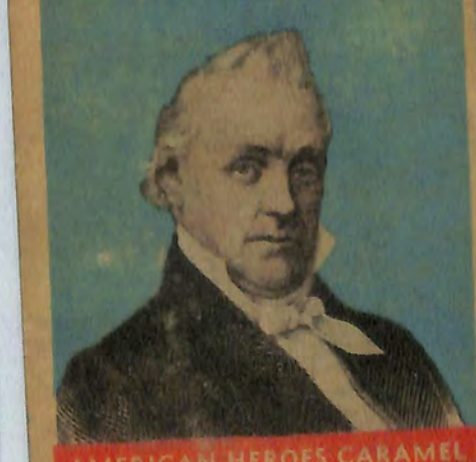

ABRAHAM LINCOLN

AMERICAN HEROES CAMEL

Z

JAMES BUCHANAN

AMERICAN HEROES CAMEL

CHESTER A. ARTHUR

The Green Mountain State President

Twenty-first President

Born Oct. 5, 1830, at Fairfield, Vermont, of Scotch-Irish descent. Educated at Union College. A teacher and lawyer. Inspector General and Quartermaster General in New York during the Civil War, and Collector of the Port of New York. Became President through the assassination of President Garfield. Retired to New York after term ended and died a little more than a year later, November 18, 1886.

This is one of a series of 31 pictures of our Presidents. Save the 31 pictures, return to United States Caramel Company, East Boston, Mass., and receive a one pound dollar box of ASSORTED CHOCOLATES FREE. Your pictures will be returned with the chocolates.

RUTHERFORD B. HAYES

A President by a Small Majority

Nineteenth President

Born Oct. 4, 1822, at Delaware, Ohio, of Scotch ancestry. A lawyer. He came from a family of soldiers. Some of its sons fought in the revolution and in the War of 1812. After his term of office, he went back to his home in Fremont, Ohio, where he died January 17, 1893.

This is one of a series of 31 pictures of our Presidents. Save the 31 pictures, return to United States Caramel Company, East Boston, Mass., and receive a one pound dollar box of ASSORTED CHOCOLATES FREE. Your pictures will be returned with the chocolates.

ULYSSES SIMPSON GRANT

America's Greatest General

Eighteenth President

Born April 27, 1822, at Point Pleasant, Ohio, of Scotch and English descent. Educated at West Point. A great and gallant soldier and fearless horseman. He once rode his horse over a narrow gang-plank onto a steamboat. All the world mourned a great man on the twenty-first of July, 1885, which was the day he died.

This is one of a series of 31 pictures of our Presidents. Save the 31 pictures, return to United States Caramel Company, East Boston, Mass., and receive a one pound dollar box of ASSORTED CHOCOLATES FREE. Your pictures will be returned with the chocolates.

ANDREW JOHNSON

The Tailor Who Became President

Seventeenth President

Born Dec. 29, 1808, at Raleigh, North Carolina, of English ancestry. Self educated. A tailor. He was Vice-President at the time the foul hand of an assassin took away one of our best Presidents, the revered Abraham Lincoln. Then, according to law, he became President. Died July 31, 1875.

This is one of a series of 31 pictures of our Presidents. Save the 31 pictures, return to United States Caramel Company, East Boston, Mass., and receive a one pound dollar box of ASSORTED CHOCOLATES FREE. Your pictures will be returned with the chocolates.

ABRAHAM LINCOLN

The Great Emancipator

Sixteenth President

Born Feb. 12, 1809, in a log cabin in Hardin County, Kentucky. English ancestry, self educated, farmer, ferryman, storekeeper, lawyer. This story is like the fairy story about the poor boy who became a prince, but this is a true story of a poor boy who became President—and that is better than being a prince. His noble Gettysburg address was delivered Nov. 19, 1864. On the night of Friday, April 14, 1865, he was shot down while attending the theatre and died early the next morning.

This is one of a series of 31 pictures of our Presidents. Save the 31 pictures, return to United States Caramel Company, East Boston, Mass., and receive a one pound dollar box of ASSORTED CHOCOLATES FREE. Your pictures will be returned with the chocolates.

JAMES BUCHANAN

The Man from Wheatland

Fifteenth President

Born April 23, 1791, near Mercersburg, Pennsylvania, of Scotch-Irish ancestry. Educated at Dickinson College, a lawyer. As a youth he fought in the defense of Baltimore against the British. Served as minister to Russia and Great Britain. Silver and petroleum had been discovered in the United States. He was the last president to wrap his neck in a stock. Died June 1, 1868.

This is one of a series of 31 pictures of our Presidents. Save the 31 pictures, return to United States Caramel Company, East Boston, Mass., and receive a one pound dollar box of ASSORTED CHOCOLATES FREE. Your pictures will be returned with the chocolates.