Dear Mr. Miller.

I am just sending the first volume of Mr. Blaine's Book to you.
All the library at 17 La Fayette Square having been removed to this house, I was fortunate enough to find your missing volume.
I have written to you attached on the fly leaf - though I had hoped to send you an autograph of Mr. Blair - but I have not been able, in the fortnight since I have been here, to look among his papers.

Sincerely yours

Harriet S. Blair

Dear General ^{B F} Butler-

If all my dinners were as agreeably remembered as this, which I had the honor of sharing with you, how valuable would be my often dinner reminiscences?

Accept my thanks, first for your ~~kind~~ note - & second for the silk -

You are as good as your word, which is very good - & I doubt not the silk will be intimate acquaintance, justify 1140 all you have said in its praise - is it certainly sent to, on just right -

Believe me yours -
