1957-TABIL

A unique exhibition sheet of four stamps issued on the occasion of TABIL, Israel's First International Stamp Exhibition, held in Tel Aviv, September 17-23. The sheet depicts the floor mosaic of the ancient Beth Alpha Synagogue excavated by Prof. Eleazar L. Sukenik in the Jezreel Valley in 1928. The center piece of the mosaic as shown on the four combined stamps depicts an allegorical illustration of the sun surrounded by twelve signs of the Zodiac. Placed on sale only during period of exhibition.
