

Postcard bearing the "Aus Jerusalem Deutsche Post" cachet in blue indicating this card had been collected from a collection box prior to being carried by coach to Jaffa where the "Jaffa Deutsche Post" postmark was applied; note that this postmark has a slash and two asterisks. The cancellation was applied to a 20 para overprinted German stamp and is dated 7 March, 1905.

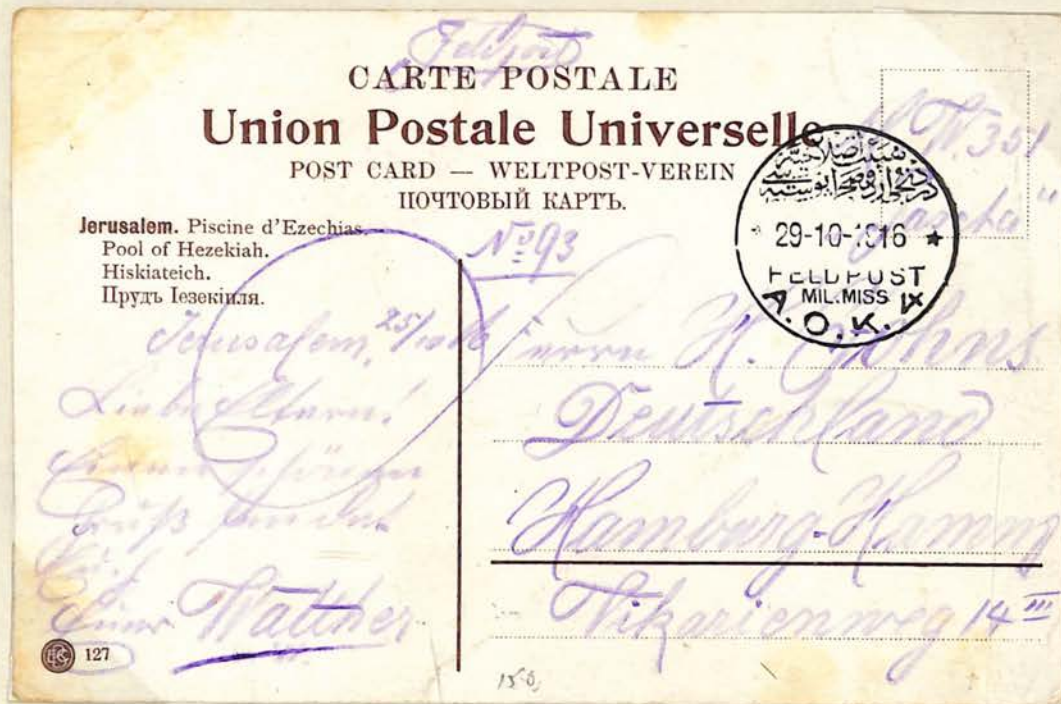

Parcel wrapper with 5 Pfennig entire postmarked with a Swiss Type "Jerusalem Deutsche Post, 20 November, 1909" cancellation and addressed to Cairo.

Registered cover bearing a 50 centimes overprinted German stamp and postmarked with a "Jerusalem, Deutsche Post, 15 December, 1908" cancellation without a slash and with an asterisk. The cover bears a "Jerusalem (Deutsche Post) No 115" black and orange registration label.

Two "Aus Jaffa, Deutsche Post" cachets in black and red on a German Levant 10 para entire, postmarked with two different types of German Jerusalem cancellations. The Jerusalem "a" single circle obliterator had no slash at this time. The Swiss type postmark was clearly used at the same time as the single circle obliterations.

The Turks attacked the Suez canal late in 1916 and were supported by German Troops from the "Pascha I" corps. These troops utilized a Military mission Field post station in Jerusalem known as A.O.K. 4. Military personnel needed only to indicated "Pascha" on their cards to avoid the necessity of stamps and to insure "prompter" handling of their mail. The Germans and their Autro-Hungarian supporters suffered heavy losses and regrouped in Bethlehem and Jerusalem which they controlled for varying times with their Turkish allies.

The German Post in the Holyland

All are postmarked "Jerusalem Deutsche Post, November 20, 1900" with a slash between the date numbers for day and month. Asterisks are present on both sides of "Jerusalem". The cover also bears the orange and black "Deutsches Postamt, Jerusalem, Eingeschrieben No. 659" registration label.
