I will try and write you a few lines to let you know that I have not forgotten you it will be a month next Thursday since I wrote to you it is a long time I know I have written to Frank once since that I have had a good many things to hinder me from writing Aunt and Uncle Lester have been down to make us a visit his health is very poor he has not been able to work since last March he thinks he is getting better they went home yesterday My Farnam is home a visiting she says that business is very dull with them she says that Leamy doesn't have any orders now they have all gone on their summer vacation they will be back soon tell Frank
