LEGENDS OF HOLLYWOOD

Actor Gary Cooper (1901-1961) started his movie career working as an extra in Westerns, and eventually went on to play the all-American hero in many classic films. His ability to "become" the characters he was playing made it easy for audiences to forget he was acting. His subtle and naturalistic style helped him win Academy Awards for his performances in Sergeant York (1941) and the highly respected Western High Noon (1952).

THE CIVIL WAR 1862
A Nation Touched with Fire

Future years will never know the seething hell and the black infernal background of countless minor scenes...and it is best they should not–the real war will never get in the books.
Walt Whitman

...the density of the smoke from guns and fire rafts, the scenes passing on board our own ship and around us...it was as if the artillery of heaven were playing upon the earth.
David G. Farragut, USS Hartford

The shrieks of the wounded and dying was terrible, but they rallied and came at us again and our men again awaited until they came in range and again arose and mowed them down...but they came again.
James C. Steele, 4th North Carolina

Oh! how proud you stood before me,
In your suit of blue,
When you vow'd to me and country,
Ever to be true.
"Weeping, Sad and Lonely"
Lyrics by Charles C. Sawyer

Mr. Brady has done something to bring home to us the terrible reality and earnestness of war. If he has not brought bodies and laid them in our door-yards and along the streets, he has done something very like it.
New York Times

THE CIVIL WAR 1861
A Nation Touched with Fire

I'll trace these gardens o'er and o'er,
Meditate on each sweet flower,
Thinking of each happy hour,
Oh, Johnny is gone for a soldier.
Traditional lament

I foresee that the country will have to pass through a terrible ordeal, a necessary expiation, perhaps, of our national sins.
Robert E. Lee

The American people and the Government at Washington may refuse to recognize it for a time; but the "inexorable logic of events" will force it upon them in the end; that the war now being waged in this land is a war for and against slavery.
Frederick Douglass

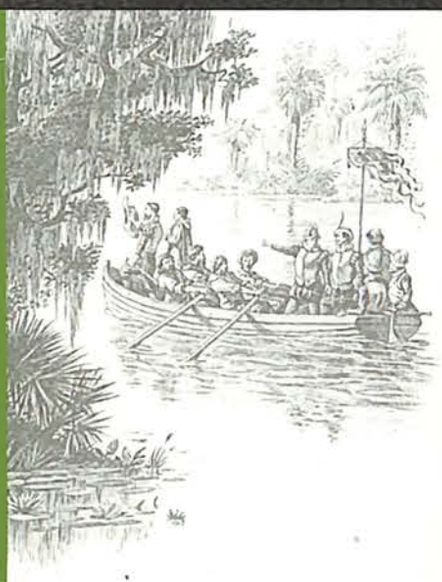

The last ray of hope for preserving the Union peaceably expired at the assault upon Fort Sumter.
Abraham Lincoln

People who are anxious to bring on war don't know what they are bargaining for; they don't see all the horrors that must accompany such an event.
Thomas J. Jackson

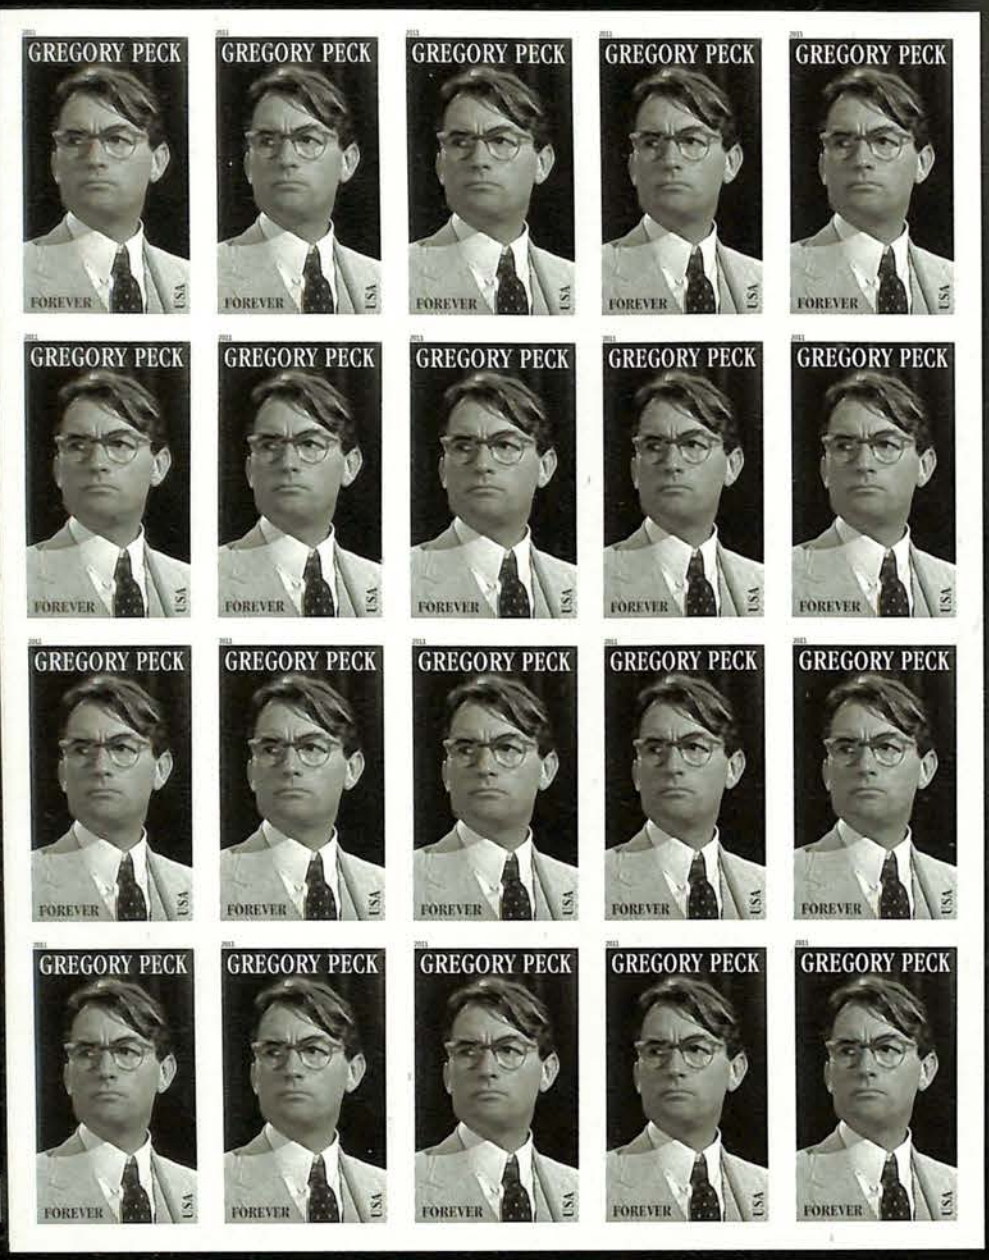

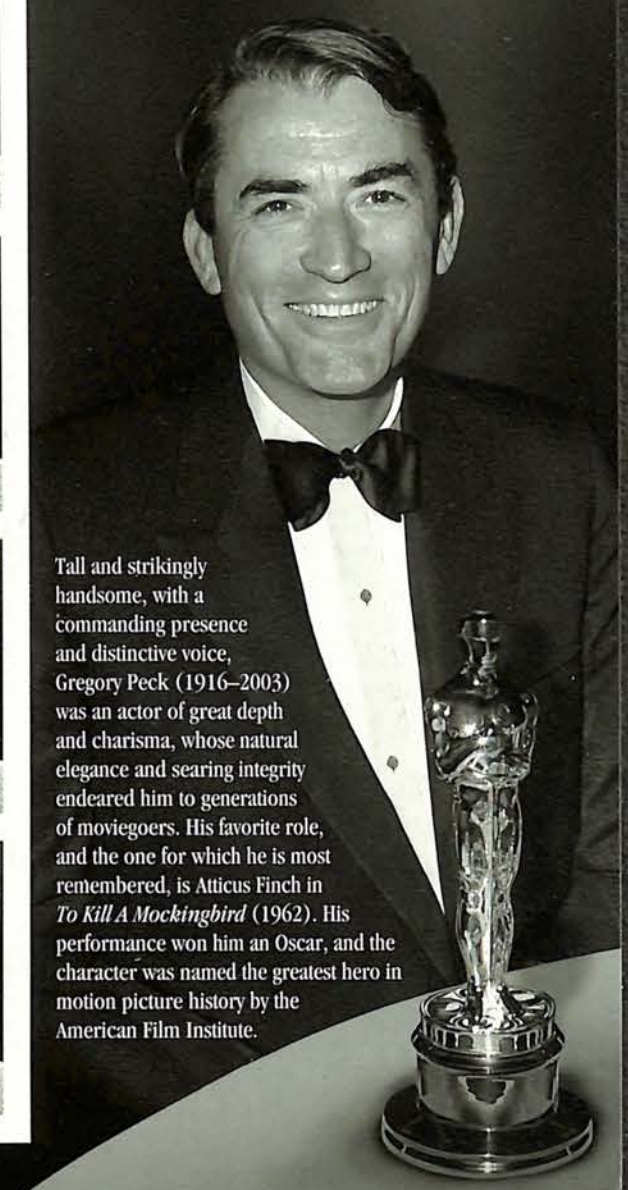

LA FLORIDA

Celebrating the quincentennial of the first Spanish expedition to Florida, these stamps evoke the beauty of the state's lush vegetation. Known today for its towering palm trees, flourishing orange groves, and opulent displays of flowers, many introduced by later explorers and settlers, the state earns the name given by the Spanish in 1513—La Florida.

LEGENDS OF HOLLYWOOD

Tall and strikingly handsome, with a commanding presence and distinctive voice, Gregory Peck (1916–2003) was an actor of great depth and charisma, whose natural elegance and searing integrity endeared him to generations of moviegoers. His favorite role, and the one for which he is most remembered, is Atticus Finch in To Kill A Mockingbird (1962). His performance won him an Oscar, and the character was named the greatest hero in motion picture history by the American Film Institute.

CELEBRATING LUNAR NEW YEAR

1863
A Nation Touched with Fire

But, in a larger sense, we can not dedicate–we can not consecrate–we can not hallow–this ground. The brave men, living and dead, who struggled here, have consecrated it, far above our poor power to add or detract.
Abraham Lincoln

But then,'tis past, the years are gone,
I'll not call up their shadowy forms;
I'll say to them,"Lost years, sleep on!
Sleep on! nor heed life's pelting storms."
"Lorena"
Lyrics by Henry Webster

For a mile up and down the open fields before us the splendid lines...of the army of Northern Virginia swept down upon us. They came half way down this slope, wavered, began to fire, then to scatter and then to run, and how our men did yell, "Come on, Johnny, come on."
Rufus R. Dawes, 6th Wisconsin

Dogs howled through the streets at night, cats screamed forth their hideous cries, and an army of rats, seeking food, would scamper around your very feet.
William Tunnard, 3rd Louisiana

...what armies and how much of war I have seen... what thousands of marching troops, what fields of slain, what prisons, what hospitals, what ruins, what cities in ashes, what hunger and nakedness, what orphanage, what widowhood, what wrongs and what vengeance.
Clara Barton
